AGREEMENT TO EXTEND THE COOPERATION ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN
THE KOREA RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF STANDARDS AND SCIENCE
OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA
AND
THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF STANDARDS AND TECHNOLOGY
OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
CONCERNING TECHNICAL COOPERATION IN METROLOGY

The Korea Research Institute of Standards and Science (KRISS) of the Republic of Korea and the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) of the United States of America (hereinafter referred to as the “Parties”) signed a Cooperation Arrangement on June 15, 2010 (hereinafter referred to as the “Arrangement”) in Seoul with the purpose of providing a framework for the exchange of technical knowledge and the augmentation of scientific and technical capabilities of both signatories.

To date, the Arrangement has served to promote important collaboration projects which have involved the technical assistance and training programs from both institutions.

Considering that the aforementioned Arrangement is effective for 5 years, and in view of the continuing need for cooperation both parties have agreed to this Agreement to Extend (hereinafter referred to as the “Agreement”) as follows, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI of the Arrangement:

1. Provisions of the existing Arrangement, unless mentioned otherwise in this Agreement, shall remain in full force.
2. The period of the validity of the existing Arrangement shall be extended for five (5) years from the date of signing of this Agreement.
3. This Agreement may be amended or extended further by written agreement of the Parties.
This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature of the duly authorized representatives of the Parties.

DONE in duplicate in English with each of the copies being equally authenticated by their duly authorized.
