

Burned wood stairs attached to house (defended by firefighters)

Tile steps attached to house

Destroyed wood stairs exposed house interior

Concrete steps attached to house with metal rail

Item 32 Stairs Connected to Residence – Use a noncombustible material for exterior stairs attached to noncombustible barrier/section between steps and house and between handrails and house (min 1') or replace with noncombustible handrail.

There is no CAD drawing for
Item 32: Stairs connected to residence

Please see photographs for illustrations.