

VCAT Agenda Review, February 3-4, 2009

Tuesday

- NIST Deputy Director's Update
- Planning at NIST
- Process Wrapped in Culture Leads PRO-TEC's Quest for Performance Excellence and Innovation
- Laboratory Tours
  - Center for Nanoscale Science and Technology (CNST)
     NanoFab: A National Facility for Nanoscale Fabrication and Measurement
  - Measurements and Standards for Detecting Trace Explosives
  - NIST's Role in Ensuring Accurate Climate Measurements
- Annual Report Preparation and Discussion

Wednesday

Continue Annual Report Preparation and Discussion

Appreciation: Exiting VCAT Members

LOU ANN HEIMBROOK

Term: March 6, 2003 – March 5, 2009 Contributions include:

- Member of VCAT Bioscience/Healthcare Subcommittee
- Assistance in Framing NIST's Biosciences Strategy

ROBERT WILLIAMS

Term: April 1, 2003 – March 5, 2009

Contributions include:

- Member of VCAT Nanotechnology Subcommittee
- VCAT Panel on Management of Organizations with Remote Sites
- VCAT Panel on How to Maximize NIST Impact on U.S. Innovation
- Advice on NIST's Role in Manufacturing in a Global Economy

