

NIST STANDARD REFERENCE INSTRUMENTS TERMS and CONDITIONS

Authority – The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) provides Standard Reference Instruments (SRI) as authorized under 15 U.S.C. 272(b)(2), which directs NIST to develop, maintain, and retain custody of national standards of measurement, and provide the means and methods for making measurement consistent with those standards; 15 U.S.C. 272(c)(6), which authorizes NIST to prepare, certify, and sell standard reference materials for use in ensuring the accuracy of chemical analyses and measurements of physical and other properties of materials; and 15 U.S.C. 272(c)(27), which authorizes NIST to undertake such other activities similar to those specified in 15 U.S.C. 272(c) as the Director determines appropriate.

Contracts and Signed Statements – As an agency of the United States Federal Government, Department of Commerce, the National Institute of Standards and Technology attests solely to the provisions described here. Receipt of orders by NIST does not imply acceptance of any provisions set forth in the order that are contrary to the policy, practice, or regulations of NIST or the U.S. Government. In general, NIST will not sign any affidavits, acknowledgment forms, or other documents that may be required by any domestic or foreign entity for policy governing procurement of goods and services. These terms and conditions supersede any conflicting and/or additional terms and conditions included in any purchase request or other document submitted to request NIST Standard Reference Instruments. In ordering NIST Standard Reference Instruments, the customer is agreeing to these Terms and Conditions which are also available at <https://www.nist.gov/sri/terms-and-conditions>.

Price – The price quote provided to Customer includes the fee for the SRI, the fee for associated Calibrations (see separate Calibrations Pro Forma Invoice), and the estimated cost for installation of the SRI and any associated travel and training. Customer must reimburse NIST for all actual costs incurred for installation, travel and training. All work will be performed by NIST employees. The Pro Forma Invoice (PFI) must be signed by the customer and payment must be received prior to the price quote expiration date.

Duration of Agreement – This agreement becomes effective when signed by the parties. The agreement will terminate upon delivery and installation (if applicable) of the instrument.

Amendments or Changes to Existing Orders – Any changes to an accepted/signed Standard Reference Instrument Pro Forma Invoice is considered an amendment, and a new Standard Reference Instrument Pro Forma Invoice, outlining the requested change, is required. Examples include:

- Changes to which SRI is ordered as outlined in the online Standard Reference Materials Catalog.
- Cost changes (increase or decrease) of greater than 10% from the estimated cost for installation, travel and training.

Shipping – Customer must provide a Federal Express account when the SRI is ready for shipment from NIST. Customers are responsible for all shipping fees, customs duties, import fees, and shipping insurance.

Invoices – NIST is a Federal government agency under the U.S. Department of Commerce; therefore, NIST must follow the payment process directed by the U.S. Department of Treasury. NIST ONLY submits invoices electronically via email. Should you need a mailed paper copy of your invoice, please send your request to srminfo@nist.gov.

Payment Information – Payment must be at NIST by the expiration date on the PFI. If payment is not received, a new signed PFI with current prices will be required. All billing terms are pre-payment required, unless an exception is authorized. If authorized, payment terms for domestic customers are Net 30 days from invoice date, and terms for non-domestic customers are Net 45 days from invoice date. All values are expressed in US dollars. Payment must be received within terms to prevent assessment of administrative and late fees, which will be applied at current rate. Penalty charge of 6% per annum will be assessed on balances over 90 days delinquent. No discounts are allowed for early payment.

We cannot accept a Letter of Credit as a form of payment. Cash payments, EFT, Pay Pal, Western Union, or any other electronic digital wallet (i.e. Venmo, ApplePay), payments are not accepted.
