

Lori Nix began employment as a Toxicologist with the Georgia Bureau of Investigation - Division of Forensic Sciences in 1999 and has been employed in the capacity of Assistant Deputy Director since 2017. She has a Bachelor's degree in Chemistry and in Anthropology/Human Biology from Emory University. Prior to assuming the Quality Manager position in 2011, Lori served as the Toxicology Technical Leader for seven years. She is a member of the Association of Forensic Quality Assurance Managers (AFQAM), the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors (ASCLD), and has been active in OSAC for a number of years. She has served in various capacities for these organizations, including serving on the AFQAM Executive Board for three years as President, President-Elect, and Past President, a member of the US TAG to TC 272 for AFQAM, and is currently on the Board of Directors for ASCLD. Prior to serving on the OSAC Standards Review Panel, Lori was a quality representative for the Facial Identification Subcommittee, Terminology Task Group chair and member of the QIC/QTG. Additionally, Lori is a team leader, technical assessor, and provides training for ANAB.