1) ICS-best practices:

The data center consolidation initiative places all servers in a central location.

This is a very bad idea for real time systems and should not be done.

a. ICS = Industrial control systems
b. Would recommend that real time systems servers (ICS) and related equipment should be kept close to the source and secured.
c. Data center consolidation creates latency, single points of failure and opening boundaries to Critical infrastructure real time systems in this environment.