Recovery Act Oversight Program
Fraud Prevention Training
Welcome

Greetings from the U.S. Department of Commerce, Office of Inspector General, Office of Investigations. We would like to congratulate you and your co-workers for winning an award pursuant to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, (a.k.a. the Stimulus Bill).

As part of our Recovery Act Oversight Program, we ask that you participate in our Fraud Prevention e-training by reviewing the following slides.

Thank you for your participation.
Department of Commerce
OIG Investigations

Who We Are

• We are a federal law enforcement branch within the DOC Office of Inspector General, primarily staffed with:
  – Special Agents / Criminal Investigators
  – Computer Crimes Unit

• Our investigative authority includes pursuing allegations of:
  – Criminal violations
  – Civil fraud violations
  – Administrative violations
Investigative Jurisdiction

Our investigative jurisdiction includes monitoring all of the funding (i.e. contracts & grants), programs, and employees of DOC Headquarters and each of the DOC bureaus:
What We Investigate

- Grant frauds
- Contract frauds
- Antitrust violations
- Embezzlements
- Property thefts
- Conflicts of Interest
- Bribery, kickbacks
- False claims & invoices
- False statements & certifications
- Bank fraud
- Money laundering
- DOC credit card abuse
- Identity theft scams
The Recovery Act gives our office specific authority to review and investigate any concerns regarding the use of DOC Recovery Act funds. Our OIG agents are authorized to:

- Examine all contractor, subcontractor, state or local records related to Recovery Act funding transactions
- Initiate investigations and work in connection with OIG Auditors
- Interview employees
In response to the Stimulus bill, we developed an oversight program for DOC which is responsible for:

- Monitoring all DOC Recovery Act awards
- Providing fraud awareness training to DOC staff working with Recovery Act awards.
- Providing fraud prevention training to contractor and grant recipients working with DOC Recovery Act awards.
Our Program Mission

To work with DOC bureaus and funding recipients to ensure that DOC Recovery Act awards are monitored and effectively protected from waste, fraud and abuse.
Fraud Prevention Training

Fraud Prevention Training Goals

- Provide fraud prevention training to funding recipients.
- Encourage open communication with agency representatives.
- Promote honesty, efficiency and fraud awareness efforts.
- Deter instances of waste, fraud and abuse with DOC Recovery Act awards.
What is Contract and Grant Fraud?

Contract / Grant Fraud

“An act of deceit, trickery or deliberate neglect, committed by a federal funding recipient against the funding agency for the purpose of gaining something of value.”

One or more of the following acts has usually occurred:

• Misappropriation of federal funds or property
• Deliberate neglect of procurement rules and guidelines
• Deliberate falsification of information
What is Contract and Grant Fraud?

Contract / Grant Fraud

- May be hidden, discreet or completely overt
- May involve a large OR small portion of a contract or award
- May involve a conspiracy between subcontractors and/or government officials
- May be a one-time incident or ongoing matter

Investigation Examples

GRANT FRAUD

• A NIST Advanced Technology Program recipient was convicted for misapplying approximately $500,000 of grant funds to pay for personal expenses, including rent, home renovations, cleaning services, restaurant meals, and miscellaneous household items.

• Four officials of an EDA Revolving Loan Fund program were convicted of fraud, conspiracy and money laundering after converting nearly $800,000 to their personal use.
CONTRACT FRAUD

• The CEO of a corporate entity under government contract was convicted of false claims for submitting invoices under a “Buy America” program, certifying U.S. origin of products supplied, when in fact the products originated in China.

• The CEO of a company participating in a government funded program was convicted of wire fraud for submitting false bids from non-existent companies, the purpose of which was to fix prices and fake a competitive process.
Keeping it Safe

Please consider our “Tips for Keeping it Safe”...
Keeping it Safe

Tips for Keeping it Safe

• Follow government rules, regulations and guidelines
• Act in good faith
• Ask questions - do not assume the answers

- Inappropriate use of cash
- Alter or destroy documents
- Mislead government contracting/program officials
- Mislead auditors/inspectors
- Mislead your employees
FRAUD PREVENTION

POST-AWARD
THINGS NOT TO DO

- Claim ignorance of rules
- Attempt to convince agency representatives to change or ignore the rules
- Interpret rules to your benefit or satisfaction
- Neglect or circumvent “Buy American” provisions unless authorized in writing
“The Golden Rule of Fraud Prevention”

WHEN IN DOUBT....DON’T DO IT.

Call your agency representative for appropriate guidance.
Did you know…..

Every person working on Stimulus funded projects has Whistleblower protection?
Whistleblower Protection – Recovery Act

The Recovery Act provides explicit protections for non-federal whistleblowers. These protections apply to all contractor and grantee staff working on Recovery Act awards. The Act prohibits funding recipients from discharging, demoting or discriminating against any employee for disclosing any concern to their supervisor, the head of a federal agency or his/her representatives, or the OIG information that the employee believes is evidence of:

- Gross mismanagement or waste of grant or contract funds.
- Danger to public health or safety related to the use of funds.
- Abuse of authority related to the implementation or use of funds.
- Violation of law, rule or regulation related to an agency contract or grant awarded or issued related to funds.
Whistleblower Protection - OIG Responsibilities

- Investigate all Whistleblower complaints related to Recovery funds that are not frivolous or being addressed by another official proceeding.

- Report of our findings to the complainant, complainant’s employer, head of DOC and the Recovery Accountability and Transparency Board within 180 days (extensions may be applied for).

- Provide a written explanation to complainants and their employers if we decline to pursue a Whistleblower allegation.
Whistleblower Protection - OIG Responsibilities

• Uphold the Privacy Act – by NOT disclosing information about complainants.

• Provide information in our semi-annual reports to congress to include:
  – Investigations we declined to pursue and
  – Investigations requiring a time extension
1. You discover that a co-worker submitted false information on invoices and receipts to your government agency.
   a) Contact the OIG and your agency representative
   b) Confront the employee
   c) Do nothing
   d) A
