GARY S. LYNCH

Managing Director

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Gary Lynch is the Global Leader of Marsh Risk Consulting's Risk Intelligence Strategies and Resiliency Solutions practice. Based in New York, he is responsible for developing the organization's risk intelligence capabilities and offerings, as well as aligning and enhancing the firm's various strategic and supply chain risk management offerings. Gary also serves on Marsh Risk Consulting's Global Executive Committee and is responsible for global practice integration, innovation and research, brand recognition, and business development.

EXPERIENCE

At Marsh since 2004, Gary has developed strategic and executable supply chain-oriented solutions including new supply chain risk transfer products and new products and services to identify, measure, mitigate, and monitor supply chain and third party risk. He has advised executive leadership and directors at global pharmaceutical, high-tech manufacturing, aerospace and defense, software, logistics, energy, consumer packaged goods, and business service organizations. Gary's work has led to the global practice being named World's Best Supply Chain Risk Consulting Provider by Global Finance in July 2012. He has also been named as a Top 25 Information Manager by Information Management in 2012.

Prior to joining Marsh, Gary held a Management Consultant/Partner position at Booz Allen Hamilton and Ernst & Young. He has served as a Global Research Director and Market Analyst at the Gartner Group, launching one of its most successful research offerings. As an industry practitioner, he built global risk programs and served as the Chief Information Security Officer and Business Continuity Executive at Chase Manhattan Bank (now JPMorgan Chase) and The Prudential.

Gary has published two books, At Your Own Risk (Wiley 2008) and Single Point of Failure: 10 Essential Laws of Supply Chain Risk Management (Wiley 2009), and contributed to a third, Supply Chain Disruptions: Theory and Practice of Managing Risk. In April 2012 he was appointed as a Senior Research Fellow for the Supply Chain Management Center at the University of Maryland's Robert H. Smith School of Business.

Gary is frequently in the media and has appeared on Bloomberg TV, CNBC Asia Squawk Box, NBC Nightly News, and ABC. He has been published or quoted in The Wall Street Journal, Institutional Investor, Shanghai Business Review, The Asset (Asia Pacific), Logistics Management, CEO Magazine, CFO, Business Insurance, Financial IT Decisions, CIO Insights, Information Security Magazine, Knowledge at Wharton, Inside Supply Management, The Conference Board, and ComputerWorld.

Gary is an advisor to the World Economic Forum (WEF) Global Risk Network and has been a panelist or featured speaker for Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC), World Customs Organization (WCO), Global Entrepolis @ Singapore, National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD), Risk and Insurance Management Society (RIMS), and Australian Risk Management and Insurance Society, among others.
