CTIONS TO VOTERS

At the voting booth and vote the ballot in the following manner:

At the party ticket, the voter may place a cross (X) mark in the circle directly below the party's name. The voter may punch a hole opposite the name of the party, or the voter may darken the oval next to the name of the party, or the voter may punch holes opposite the names of candidates on different party tickets. (Section 115.439.1(2), RSMo, 1994)

At the party ticket, the voter may punch the hole opposite the name of one party and punch holes opposite the names of candidates on different party tickets. The voter may darken the oval next to the name of one party, and darken the oval next to the names of candidates on different party tickets.

If the name does not appear on the ballot, the voter may cross out a name which is for whom the voter wishes to vote above or below the crossed-out name and draw-out name. If a write-in line appears on the ballot, the voter may write the name in the square directly to the left of the name. (Section 115.433, RSMo, 1994)

If the name does not appear on the ballot, the voter may use the envelope or space (X) mark in the square directly to the left of the name.

If the name does not appear on the ballot, the voter may cross out a name which is for whom the voter wishes to vote above or below the crossed-out name and draw-out name. If a write-in line appears on the ballot, the voter may write the name of the person for whom the voter may use the envelope or space (X) mark in the square directly to the left of the name.

If the voter returns a card or makes an error, the voter may return it to an election judge and receive another ballot card and place it in an envelope marked “SPOILED BALLOTS.” After the voter places the ballot in the ballot box, the ballot shall be given to the voter for voting. (Section 115.433, RSMo, 1994)
IONS TO VOTERS
