

TE Challenge Kickoff Meeting Agenda, September 10-11, 2015

(Preliminary Agenda)

Thursday Sept 10

Morning Plenary (webcast) 8:30 – 12:45

Portrait Room

8:30 NIST Welcome (Howard Harary)

8:35 TE Challenge vision (Chris Greer)

8:45 What is TE, why it matters and where it's headed (Ron Melton, PNNL)

9:10 Example of how a challenge works (Sokwoo Rhee, NIST)

9:20 Challenge context: where we are, what we have, where we're going (David Holmberg)

- March TE Challenge Prep Workshop results
- TE Challenge Collaboration site introduction
- Baseline scenarios and the TE Use Case Framework
- Logistics, details of the Challenge and the Kickoff

10:00 Established team project presentations

11:00 Five-minute presentations from participants with ideas for how they want to participate in the Challenge ("Speed Dating")

Lunch in NIST cafeteria 12:45-2:00

Afternoon Session 2:00-5:00

Portrait Room and Heritage Room (also Dining Rooms A&B if needed)

2:00 Time for additional presentations (if needed)

2:30 Team Forming—meeting with potential partners to shape team plans

4:30 Plenary: share team summary plans

Tour of the NIST Net-Zero Energy Residential Test Facility (Net-Zero House) (Optional) 5:00-6:00

Dinner 6:30pm

On your own—we suggest dinner together with teams. Restaurant list will be provided.

Friday Sept 11

Morning session 8:00-12:00

Heritage Room (also DR C for breakouts if needed)

8:00 Challenge Development and Next Steps

- Review of teams
- Discussion on TE Challenge development: foundational elements, collaborative paths forward, promotion, team use of Collaboration Site
- Review of what have we accomplished and next steps

10:00 Additional team planning and TE Challenge collaboration

Tour of the NIST Smart Grid Testbed laboratory (optional) 11:30 – 12:00