

LaTaiga Proctor

Enterprise Risk Management Program Manager, Office of Risk Management & Program Evaluation, U.S. Census Bureau

Ms. Proctor is the Census Bureau's Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) Program Manager. She has served in this capacity for more than 5 years, has 20 years of federal government service, including at the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office, and the Department of Justice, and 10 years of private and non-profit sector experience.

The Census ERM Framework that Ms. Proctor developed has an 'advanced' level rating by the Department of Commerce and by the Corporate Executive Board (CEB) for its process maturity, and includes an ERM plan, policy, and database. Ms. Proctor has supported the implementation of ERM within many organizations, including as a contributor to the Guidelines on Risk Management Practices in Statistical Organizations, developed by Member Nations in the United Nations Economic Commission of Europe (UNECE), in Geneva Switzerland.

Ms. Proctor is a recipient of the DOC Bronze Medal Award, and the Census Bureau Director's Award for Innovation. Ms. Proctor has a BA in Sociology and a MS in Finance from the University of Maryland. She is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP), holds a Business Analysis Certificate and a Project Management Certificate from George Washington University School of Business, and is a Level III Contracting Officer Representative (COR).