

Jennifer Winkler

Professional Staff, Senate Appropriations Committee

Jennifer Winkler has worked at the Senate Appropriations Committee since June of 2014. Her position at the Committee is unique in that she works for the Full Committee as a technical advisor to both the majority and minority staffs. She has responsibility for keeping track of subcommittee allocations and acts as a liaison on scoring with the Budget Committees, the Congressional Budget Office (CBO), and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Before joining the Senate Appropriations Committee, Jennifer worked for nearly eleven years in the Budget Review Division at OMB, for four years at the Senate Budget Committee, and for three and a half years in the Projection's Unit in CBO's Budget Analysis Division.