

Chris Krug is the Quality Assurance Manager for the Johnson County Sheriff's Office Criminalistics Laboratory in Olathe, KS, a suburb of Kansas City. He holds a B.A. in Chemistry (ACS) from Gustavus Adolphus College, and an M.S. in Criminal Justice with a specialization in Forensic Science from Virginia Commonwealth University. Mr. Krug began his career in 2002 with the Virginia Division of Forensic Science. In 2003, he took a position with the Drug Enforcement Administration where he worked as a Forensic Chemist for almost three years. In 2005, he accepted a position as a Forensic Scientist for the Johnson County Sheriff's Office

Criminalistics Laboratory in the Drug Chemistry section, a position he held until 2008 when he took on the full-time position of Quality Assurance Manager.

Mr. Krug is an ABC Diplomate in Drug Chemistry as well as an ANAB Technical and Lead Assessor. He is a member of ASCLD, MAFS, and AFQAM, and has served on the Executive Board of AFQAM in the roles of President-Elect/President/Past President and Treasurer. He has presented on both technical and management topics at various regional and national meetings including the Midwest Crime Lab Director's Association, ASCLD, AFQAM, MAFS, SWAFS and CLIC.

He was appointed to the FSSB in 2020 where he serves as the AFQAM representative.