Unapproved software installs or downloaded files can introduce malware on your system, which could track your web habits, monitor keystrokes, or even damage your system.

TIP: Software on Library systems should only be installed by authorized personnel. Contact the OCIO Service Desk for any needed software install requests.

For more information, see:

http://www.loc.gov/staff/security