BALLOT MEASURES

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 1
House Joint Resolution No. 56
Amendment Prohibiting Voter Initiatives About Wildlife

This ballot measure would change the Alaska Constitution so that voters could not use the initiative process to make laws that permit, regulate, or prohibit taking or transporting wildlife, or prescribe seasons or methods for taking wildlife.

Should this constitutional amendment be adopted?

- YES
- NO

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 2
House CS for Senate Joint Resolution No. 27
(Finance) am H
Amendment and Revision of Alaska Constitution

This proposal says that an amendment to the Alaska Constitution is a change that is limited to one subject. It may affect more than one part of the constitution. This proposal also adds a new section to article XIII of the Alaska Constitution. It says that a court may not change the language of an amendment to the constitution proposed by the legislature. Also, a court may not change the language of an amendment or revision proposed by a constitutional convention.

Should this constitutional amendment be adopted?

- YES
- NO

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 3
Conference CS for Senate Joint Resolution No. 34
Constitutional Amendment Relating to Public Corporations

This amendment states that the Alaska permanent fund would be managed by a public corporation established by law. Members of the public appointed by the governor to the board of this corporation would not be subject to legislative approval. These members may only be removed from the board for cause. However, members appointed by the governor to boards of other public corporations that manage significant state assets must be approved by the legislature. Also, a law could be enacted to provide that these other board members may only be removed from office for cause.

Should this constitutional amendment be adopted?

- YES
- NO

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 4
 INITIATIVE NO. 99PTAR
 Bill Limiting Property Assessment and Taxation

This initiative bars certain municipalities from setting property tax rates above 10 mills. The 10 mill cap will not apply to taxes to repay bonds issued before January 1, 2001. Taxes to pay for bonds issued after January 1, 2001, must be included in the 10 mill limit. The bill also repeals the law requiring the same mill rate on all properties. It sets the assessment of property at its value on January 1, 2001. Each year an assessment may rise no more than 2 percent. Property will be reassessed when it is sold or improved. Should this initiative become law?

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 5
 INITIATIVE NO. 99HEMP
 Allowing Uses of Hemp, Including Marijuana

This bill would do away with civil and criminal penalties for persons 18 years or older who use marijuana, or other hemp products. These products include hemp used for paper, fiber, food, fuel, medicine, or personal use in private. Marijuana would be regulated like an alcoholic beverage. Doctors could prescribe marijuana. The bill allows for laws limiting marijuana use in some cases to protect public safety. It grants amnesty to persons convicted in the past of marijuana crimes. The bill creates an advisory group to study restitution for those persons. Should this initiative become law?

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 6
 REFERENDUM NO. 00GAME
 Chapter 20, Session Laws of Alaska 2000
 An Act Relating to Management of Game

Voters are asked to either approve or reject a law allowing hunters to use airplanes to land and shoot wolves on the same day they fly. The law allows any person with a hunting or trapping license to land and shoot in areas established by the Board of Game. No additional permit may be required. The law also allows the Alaska Department of Fish and Game to use agents, as well as employees, to engage in same day airborne shooting of wolves. A yes vote rejects the law. A no vote approves the law. Should this law be rejected?
